

Alan L. Davis
Chief Executive
Raytheon Emirates Ltd.

Alan Davis is the chief executive for Raytheon Emirates, a landed company of Raytheon Technologies based in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates. He is responsible for driving business localization and growth strategy to compete effectively in international markets.

Davis served as the chief executive for the landed company prior to Raytheon Company's merger with United Technologies Corporation in 2020. Previously, he was the chief operating officer for the wholly owned subsidiary.

Davis has 30-plus years of industry experience with over 25 in program management. He was the senior program director for Intermediate Area Defense Systems within the Naval Area Defense Systems product line at Raytheon Missile Systems. Within Naval Area Defense Systems, he led the Evolved Sea Sparrow Missile ESSM® program, overseeing all new product development, production, product delivery and in-service support for the U.S. Navy and 15 international customers.

Alan holds a bachelor's of science degree in Business Management from the University of Arizona, and studied aerospace management at Arizona State University.
