Dr. Ahmed AlKhazraji
Institute Director, Medical Operations
Cleveland Clinic Abu Dhabi

Dr. AlKhazraji serves as Institute Director, Medical Operations at Cleveland Clinic Abu Dhabi (CCAD), leading the operations, budgets, and implementation of strategies across multiple clinical and administrative service lines. Prior to this role, he served as the Director of Rehabilitation Therapies, brought in to establish and operationalize rehabilitation services from their absolute beginning.

He currently serves as a Board Member of AmCham Abu Dhabi, and represents the UAE on the Steering Committee of the UAE Centre of Johns Hopkins' Sheikh Khalifa Stroke Institute. He is also an active member of the American College of Healthcare Executives and the American Physical Therapy Association.

Dr. AlKhazraji received his undergraduate degree from Marquette University, his Doctor of Physical Therapy degree from the University of Southern California, and his Executive Certification in Corporate Finance from Columbia Business School.

He is also currently completing the UAE Government Executive Leaders Program with Oxford University's Saïd Business School, as one of a group of hand-picked Emarati executive leaders tasked with helping drive the UAE towards its centennial 2071 vision.
