

Thomas Bruns
Regional Senior Commercial Officer for the Gulf and Counselor for Commercial Affairs
U.S. Embassy Abu Dhabi

Thomas Bruns is the Regional Senior Commercial Officer at the U.S. Embassy Abu Dhabi. In this role, he is responsible for the Gulf including United Arab Emirates, Qatar, Oman, and Kuwait.

Prior to this, Mr. Bruns served as the Deputy Senior Commercial Officer at the U.S. Embassy Moscow. He has worked for the U.S. Department of Commerce in Turkey, Bulgaria, and Washington D.C. receiving multiple awards for his contributions with Commerce and interagency colleagues in advancing U.S. company interests through trade promotion and policy activities.

Prior to joining the U.S. Department of Commerce, Mr. Bruns worked as a Regional Sales Executive in the construction tools industry in France with the Hilti Corporation. Earlier in his career, Mr. Bruns worked in the international development sector as a Peace Corps Volunteer, Associate Peace Corps Director, and independent consultant working for the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization and the United States Agency for International Development. Mr. Bruns started his career in sales and marketing working for the Groupe PSA (Citroen) in Paris, France in the automotive sector.

Mr. Bruns is a graduate of the University of Virginia and received a Master of Business Administration with distinction from Thunderbird School of Global Management at Arizona State University. He is bilingual in French and English, and has studied Bulgarian, Russian, and Turkish.