My goals for AmCham Abu Dhabi Board Membership align with the Board Governance roles as outlined. As Vice-Chair, I will focus on the sustainability and expansion of US business interests with our Emirati partners by advocating for member organizations and their business objectives. I will work to advance and preserve current membership through development of inclusive strategies that showcase the capability and value of buying from American companies. Additionally, I will collaborate with prospective members to develop campaigns and relationships that promote entry vectors for new products, services, and technologies.
